What does the
Cosmikk Foundation
do?

The Cosmikk Foundation is committed to the vision of

“ Better Leadership, Better Organizations, Better World. ”

Its goal is to promote the personal growth and leadership skills of socially, humanitarially and environmentally committed people with responsibility.

That is why the Foundation is committed to making leadership coaching, resilience building and organizational development accessible to young talents and leaders of NGOs and social businesses engaged in social, humanitarian and environmental activities in line with the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

The managing directors of the foundation are Uwe Achterholt and Karsten Drath.

Example Projects

Funding travel grants for the zis Foundation (www.zis-reisen.de), which awards travel grants to young people regardless of social background or academic achievement

Free coaching for the local aid organization Dachzeltnomaden (www.dzn-hilfe.com), which helps flood victims in the Ahr valley to make their houses habitable again

Free coaching for refugees from Ukraine with the help of our digital coaching platform together with the coaches of the International Coaching Federation

Karsten Drath, born in 1969, is the author of several management books as well as an executive coach and also one of the managing directors of the consulting firm Leadership Choices.

He is also one of the directors of the Cosmikk-Foundation. This foundation pursues the goal of promoting the personal growth and leadership of socially, humanitarially and ecologically committed people with responsibility.
